Dear Director Yang Bojiang:

On behalf of the faculty and staff of the Fairbank Center for Chinese Studies at Harvard University, we write to acknowledge your kind words on the death of our colleague, teacher, friend, and former Director.

The outpouring of affection and respect for Ezra over the last few days has been truly inspiring, and has made our grief easier to bear. The Institute of Japanese Studies at CASS had a special place in Ezra's heart, and he valued his many friends and collaborators there. We are grateful for your gesture.

Ezra lived a full life and made a profound impact on both academic scholarship and the broader world. At this difficult moment, we take inspiration from his life to redouble our own efforts to try to make a positive contribution to the world.

With our deep thanks for your consideration,
